

Todd & Weld LLP

Gregory Browne

Associate

Direct: 617-624-4714

gbrowne@toddweld.com

Gregory Browne counsels clients in a wide variety of business litigation matters.

Gregory Browne concentrates his practice on business and healthcare litigation. He represents and counsels clients in all phases of civil litigation and arbitration, including examining witnesses in court, drafting pleadings and appellate briefs, managing discovery, arguing motions, working with experts, and developing litigation strategy.

Prior to joining Todd & Weld, Mr. Browne was a litigation attorney for a Boston law firm where he handled medical malpractice and construction defect matters.

During law school, Mr. Browne served as a judicial intern for Massachusetts Superior Court Judge Beverly J. Cannone and was an Honor's Legal Intern at the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Practice Areas

- Business Litigation

Representative Results

- Following a bench trial, secured a combined $1.6 million award for two former employees of a real estate development company resulting from the owner's breach of profit share agreements
- Persuaded a Massachusetts Superior Court judge to grant summary judgment to the firm's clients rejecting a breach of contract and fraud claim asserted by the former owner of luxury hotel in Boston
- Obtained jury verdict rejecting breach of contract claim by owner/developer of senior living facility
- Secured dismissal with prejudice breach of fiduciary duty claim in U.S. District Court in New Jersey

- Persuaded the Massachusetts Board of Registration in Medicine to unanimously adopt a recommended decision of an administrative magistrate to exonerate an allergist in a disciplinary proceeding involving medical care he provided to several patients seeking treatment for hives
- Obtained favorable settlement in wage and hour matter on behalf of construction company
- Secured a favorable settlement of a personal injury case involving second degree burns of a woman's hand from spilled hot tea at a well-known coffee franchise
- Following a bench trial, persuaded a Massachusetts Housing Court judge to bar a tenant from entering an apartment after the tenant flooded and attempted to set fire to the unit; subsequently obtained summary process eviction judgment

Experience

Todd & Weld LLP (2023-present)

Adler, Cohen, Harvey, Wakeman & Guekguezian, LLP (2022-2023)

Mirrione, Shaughnessy, Uitti, LLC (2021-2022)

Bar Admissions

- Massachusetts, 2021
- Rhode Island, 2022
- U.S. District Court, Massachusetts, 2022

Education

- Syracuse University College of Law (J.D., cum laude, 2021) Inductee of Justinian Honor Society; recipient of CALI Excellence of the Future Award in Corporate Compliance Law; Editorial Board Member of Journal of International Law and Commerce
- University of Tampa (B.A., cum laude, 2017)

Publications/Presentations

- Co-author, Discovery Motions chapter in Massachusetts Superior Court Civil Practice Manual, 6th ed. 2023 (MCLE)

News & Insights

- Firm attorneys contribute to civil litigation practice manual
- Todd & Weld welcomes new associate Gregory Browne

Results

- Firm obtains $1.6M judgment for clients in contract dispute over financial distributions

- Housing Court judge bars dangerous tenant from accessing apartment pending outcome of eviction proceeding
- David Rich, Gregory Browne secure defense verdict defeating $650K breach of contract claim