

Todd & Weld LLP

Gregory Browne

Associate

(617) 720-2626

gbrowne@toddweld.com

Gregory Browne counsels clients in a wide variety of business litigation matters.

Gregory Browne concentrates his practice on business and healthcare litigation. He represents and counsels clients in all phases of civil litigation and arbitration, including drafting pleadings, managing discovery, handling motions, working with experts, and developing litigation strategy.

Prior to joining Todd & Weld, Mr. Browne was a litigation attorney for a Boston law firm where he handled construction defect, medical malpractice, and general liability matters.

During law school, Mr. Browne served as a judicial intern for Massachusetts Superior Court Judge Beverly J. Cannone and was an Honor's Legal Intern at the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Practice Areas

- Business Litigation

Experience

Todd & Weld LLP (2023-present)

Adler, Cohen, Harvey, Wakeman & Guekguezian, LLP (2022-2023)

Mirrione, Shaughnessy, Uitti, LLC (2021-2022)

Bar Admissions

- Massachusetts, 2021
- Rhode Island, 2022
- U.S. District Court, Massachusetts, 2022

Education

- Syracuse University College of Law (J.D., cum laude, 2021) Inductee of Justinian Honor Society; recipient of CALI Excellence of the Future Award in Corporate Compliance Law; Editorial Board Member of Journal of International Law and Commerce
- University of Tampa (B.A., cum laude, 2017)

Publications/Presentations

- Co-author, Discovery Motions chapter in Massachusetts Superior Court Civil Practice Manual, 6th ed. 2023 (MCLE)

News & Insights

- Firm attorneys contribute to civil litigation practice manual
- Todd & Weld welcomes new associate Gregory Browne

Results

- David Rich, Gregory Browne secure defense verdict defeating $650K breach of contract claim