

Todd & Weld LLP

Closely Held Business, Shareholder Dispute, and Governance Litigation

Our attorneys regularly advise and represent clients concerning all aspects of corporate governance issues in closely held corporations, partnerships, and other business entities. Our expertise includes advising officers, boards of directors, shareholders, and special litigation committees on an array of business disputes, including:

- Fiduciary duties
- Employment issues with minority and majority shareholders
- Executive compensation
- Corporate freeze-outs
- Direct and derivative shareholder claims
- Internal investigations
- Business control and/or operational matters

Related Practices

- Business Litigation
- Cannabis Litigation
- Franchise Litigation and Counseling
- Intellectual Property Litigation
- Religious Institution Litigation
- Complex Business Litigation