

Todd & Weld LLP

Compliance Advice

The best medicine for preventing enforcement or disciplinary proceedings is a proactive, effective compliance process. Our health law attorneys regularly advise medical professionals and institutions on a variety of issues associated with healthcare regulations and best practices.

We conduct internal investigations to pinpoint potential compliance problems and to develop an effective prevention program or practice management plan. We ensure that corporate compliance programs address specific "hot button" regulatory issues.

Related Practices

- Health Law
- Peer Review Proceedings
- Billing Audits
- Fraud and Abuse Investigations and Claims
- Medical Licensing Boards